In 1998 a small group of people had a dream to honor Native Americans in Tennessee. They wanted to recognize those who have made outstanding contributions in their Community or all over the entire state. They wanted to honor these leaders publicly so that others could see the good things they were doing on issues that affect all races in Tennessee. They chose the name "Eagle Awards" because like the Eagle these People soar the highest. They strive to achieve the best that can be done or do what's right.

These Eagle Award Recipients are Hero's in today's society. There are many that admire all that they have done. They do their good works all the time, not thinking others notice. We want to honor them for their selfless acts. We look up to them and we want others including our children to look up to them for their traditional values and leadership qualities..

In the past, the honorees have accepted their awards with humility, in the same selfless manner that they made their individual contributions. There were no longwinded speeches of acceptance, only humble thank-yous and embraces. They always say they don't deserve this award because they don't realize the good things they have done.

We are dedicated to Honoring ALL the Native American Hero's in Tennessee. Nominate your Hero for an Eagle Award and Join us for this Historic event. August 9th, 2008 has been set aside for the Eagle Award Banquet.

As almost everyone knows the Tennessee Native American Eagle Awards is in its 11th year Honoring Native Americans in Tennessee who have helped advance our race and done good works for all of us in Communities all over the state.

We are asking you for your help either with sponsoring with your monetary donations or actually helping with the Eagle Awards Event.

As most events of this caliber, it cost money to hold it. In order to keep up the tradition the Eagle Awards has always had, that cost keeps rising.

We depend on the Natchez Trace Pow-Wow proceeds to fund the Eagle Awards and you know we can not always expect the success of the Pow-Wow, as in the past, because unforeseen circumstances may arise.

If there is any Company, Organization or Individual that can help in any way, do not hesitate to contact us.
